Locations: University Art Gallery & Contemporary Arts Center Gallery | 712 Arts Plaza, Claire Trevor School of the Arts

Description: First Glimpse: Introducing The Buck Collection is part of the emerging Institute and Museum for California Art. Acquired by Orange County developer and eclectic collector Gerald Buck, the 3,300 artworks by California artists span a broad range of genres and media. The exhibition, held at the Claire Trevor School of the Arts, reveals just over fifty works of Abstract Classicism, Expressionism, Assemblage, California Funk, Light and Space, and those defying definition. The exhibition presents California as a crucible of creativity and its artists as pioneering new movements, altering historical courses, and following powerful individual vision.

Gallery Hours: Tuesday – Saturday, 12:00 – 6:00 p.m. | Thursdays until 8:00 p.m. | Free and open to the public.
